Be thinking about this. I like her Phd in Environmental Management from Vanderbilt, but it's a scientific management degree really. That is really good in a sense, but strict science it is not. Please keep that in mind. Thanks. She seems like a wonderful lady. Richard wins the long straw on this one. Nancy, I have another good one for you though.

What if we back it up a bit to 11:30 our time so we can have enough time with the candidate. Nancy, it's the lady you forwarded to me a couple of days ago.
